KINGS COUNTY RESOURCE FAMILY APPROVAL (RFA) PROGRAM

IT'S NOT A JOB; IT IS A COMMITMENT TO OUR COMMUNITY'S CHILDREN.

What is a Resource Family?

RFA is a unified, family friendly and child-centered resource family approval process that replaces the existing multiple processes, eliminates duplication, and increases approval standards by incorporating a comprehensive psychosocial evaluation of all families that want to foster, adopt, or provide legal guardianship to a child.

What is a Resource Family?

- An individual, couple, or family who wants to provide care to a related or unrelated child who is under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court, or otherwise in the care of a county child welfare agency.
- A Resource Family has successfully met approval standards which include building and ground inspection, risk assessment, background clearances, training and a permanency assessment as established in the Resource Family Written Directives.
- Upon approval, a Resource Family is considered to be approved for providing foster care, becoming a legal guardian or adopting a child without going through additional processes.

What is the Resource Family Approval Process?
