Resource Family Approval (RFA)

All children need and deserve a safe, loving, nurturing, accepting, and consistent place to live where they can thrive and mature. Becoming a resource family caregiver provides a home for a child to do just that.

Resource Family Approval (RFA) is a new caregiver approval process that a foster parent, relative, non-relative extended family member, (NREFM) or adoptive family completes to be considered for potential placement of a child, youth, or young adult (non-minor dependents from 18-21 years old).

RFA combines elements of the current foster care licensing, relative approval, NREFM, adoption, and guardianship processes into one application.

RFA Streamlines the Approval Process

RFA is a unified, family-friendly and child-centered approval process that includes one application, one background check, combined home environment and permanency assessment, pre-approval and post-approval training for all families.

RFA Requirements

The following is a partial list of requirements prior to approval.

- Criminal record check/Live Scan
- Informational Meeting, Orientation and Pre-Approval Training
- Home environment assessment
- Permanency Assessment
- CPR/First Aid
- Health Screening and TB test
- DMV Report

The approval process also includes:

- In-home visits with all adults and children, youth, and young adults
- Reference checks
- Verification and completed application forms

There may be minimal costs associated with RFA.

RFA Facts

Once approved, Resource Families may be considered for placement for foster care, adoption or legal guardianship, depending on the Resource Family's goal. Resource Family Approval does not guarantee placement of a child.

If you are currently a licensed foster home, you will not be required to go through the new RFA process at this time. If you are an existing Foster Family and ready to adopt, you may go through the adoption home study process.

FOR RELATIVE/NREFM PLACEMENTS

During an emergency situation, a child, youth or young adult can be placed temporarily in a relative or non-related extended family member home until full approval requirements are met. An emergency placement requires the following:

- Completion of application and supporting documents within 5 business days
- Criminal record and Child Abuse Index check
- Face to face interviews with each relative or NREFM
- Home Environment Assessment
- Criminal background check assessment within 10 business days
- Full completion of the RFA Approval process, including 27 hours of training and Permanency Assessment is to be completed within 90 days of placement.
